Head of Growth & Business Development | Product Strategy &
Market Expansion | Scaling Revenue from 0 to €4M+ | Fixing
Business Models & Operations
Бар, Черногория

Общие сведения

I am a Growth Executive who speaks two languages fluently:
Revenue and Business Efficiency.

My approach is holistic: I don't just "sell" what is given. I analyze the business mechanism, find the weak links—whether in the product offer, the customer journey, or operational execution—and fix them to drive exponential growth.

My Core Superpower: I operate at the intersection of Product, Marketing, and Operations. I build customer maps, craft irresistible market offers, and execute the strategy globally.

What I actually do: Architect the Offer: I transform generic services into scalable products that fit market needs perfectly. Scale Operations: I turn chaotic startups into structured machines. Recently launched operations in 8 countries in 5 months. Drive Revenue: I focus on the bottom line. My strategies have generated €4M+ in direct revenue and 4x audience growth.

Background: My foundation is in IT Project Management, which taught me systems thinking. My career in High-Ticket Sales taught me negotiation and psychology. Now, I combine these to help companies scale fast and efficiently.

Open for: Head of Growth / Director of Business Development / Country Manager roles.
